April Boticial is ambitious, growth-minded, and not afraid to take risks. April radiates joy and loves to tackle new challenges. We asked April a few questions to get to know her better, and here is what she had to share.

If you could do another job for just one day, what would it be?

A veterinarian. I have a deep love for animals and enjoy connecting with them.

What is your best business tip?

Align your business with something you genuinely love doing. That way, when challenges arise or fatigue sets in, you'll have a deeper purpose to hold onto as something more meaningful than just profit.

What is your personal motto or mantra?

Never stop learning because the world never stops changing.

People would be surprised to know:

I've been an entrepreneur since grade school. I sold my mom's baked goods at school for fun and rewards and continued food retail through high school and college to stretch my allowance. Now, I have been running my own small craft business for six years.

Do you have a hobby?

I'm passionate about crafting, whether it's handmade or digital. It's even more rewarding when I can turn my creativity into income.
