Jayson Hill embodies honesty, resourcefulness, and a determined commitment to doing things right the first time. Jayson brings passion to everything he touches and finds fulfillment in fixing, improving, and understanding how things work. We asked Jayson a few questions to get to know him better, and here is what he had to share.

If you could do another job for just one day, what would it be?

I'd have to say a NASCAR driver at Talladega Superspeedway. I've always had a passion for cars!

What is your best business tip?

Surround yourself with a trusted team of advisors in the areas where you're not an expert, and make sure they all collaborate and understand both your business and personal goals.

What is your personal motto or mantra?

Do it right the first time. PERIOD.

What is one accomplishment you are most proud of?

Earning my MBA. Most of the time, kids don't get to see the hard work, dedication, and sacrifice parents made that go into achieving something big. My oldest daughter was able to witness firsthand why I had to spend time studying instead of always joining family outings and that made the accomplishment even more meaningful.

Do you have a hobby?

Fixing things! I love figuring out how something should work, taking it apart, repairing it, and putting it back together again.
